Presidency. The return in question has to be forwarded to the Accountant General, Madras. As this is a purely routine matter, it is a point for orders whether the Comptroller may not be authorized to forward the return to the Accountant General, Madras, direct, if the Residency has no objection. This procedure is suggested, as decentralization of powers are being effected in Excise and other Depts. with a view to minimize correspondence with Govt. on routine matters and as a measure of economy. The connected file has been submitted in another connection.

Submitted for orders with a draft forwarding the return to the Residency.
